

LYDIA YANG

FOUNDER & SCHOOL MANAGER

- I am a warm and dedicated Mandarin educator with 17 years of experience in teaching, school management and cross-cultural education.
- I spent 7 years building and leading top international Mandarin schools across major global cities, growing new branches into leading local institutions.
- For the past 10 years, as founder of Mandarin Time, I have developed innovative teaching systems, multimedia courses and self-learning platforms. Today we are Hong Kong's largest and most trusted Mandarin school.
- I have also completed professional programs at Harvard Online School, including Negotiation Mastery and School Management.
- I have lived and worked in China, Hong Kong, the UK, Germany, and Taiwan, which gives me a truly global, open-minded perspective to education. I bring patience, warmth and focus to every student, helping them learn Mandarin confidently and enjoyably.
